

National Yunlin University of Science and Technology, Student Dormitory, Room Management Regulations on the nature of dormitory attendance

Approved for implementation at the 5th Executive Session of the 97th school year on 1/13/98

Approved for amendment at the 10th Executive Session of the 102nd school year on 6/17/10

Approved by the Chancellor on 7/28/109 Variance Statute Review Levels

1.Goal

In order to properly regulate the use and management of student dormitories, to provide dormitory-related duty personnel with access to the dormitories, and to effectively implement the dormitory management regulations of a standby nature.

2.Implementation Requirements

(1) The student dormitories are managed by the Discipline Section of the Office of Student Affairs, while rooms in use are managed by the users themselves. The Discipline Section of the Office of Student Affairs conducts inspections of the rooms from time to time.

(2) Eligibility to apply for student dormitory space on a standby basis:

- A. Instructors
- B. School safety personnel
- C. Dormitory administrators
- D. Other approved dormitory-related staff members

(3) The premises of the student hostel of a standby nature are for the use of the hostel duty officer only when he/she is on duty and shall not be used by the user as living premises or made available for the accommodation of other non-duty officers.

(4) Duty Officers shall observe the following while on duty on the premises:

- A. No unauthorized electrical appliances or flammable materials shall be used. 2) The premises shall be kept in a clean environment.
- B. The premises shall be kept in a clean environment.
- C. Duty personnel shall take care of all common items and electrical facilities in the premises. 4.
- D. Users of the premises shall take the initiative to complete the turnover of all common items when they leave the service or when they are transferred to other duties.

(5) Water, electricity, gas, and utilities used in the building are financed under the Student Housing Program.

(6) Damage to common items should be reported to the Office of the Registrar in conjunction with the General Office for repair.

3.These regulations shall be implemented as approved by the Student Affairs Council, approved by the President, and amended.